P R E F A C E

To facilitate the study and understanding of present-day Indian tribal organization and governmental procedures, the Museum of Anthropology of Colorado State College has assembled a large number of Indian Tribal Charters, Constitutions and By-Laws to be reproduced as a series of publications. The materials will be published in related groupings, such as by cultural or geographical areas; e.g., the present volume: "The Sioux Tribes of South Dakota".

In a personal communiqué with the editor, Mr. Robert Pennington, Acting Chief of the Branch of Tribal Operations, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Washington, D. C., writes the following about Federal Indian Law:

"Indian self-government includes generally the power of an Indian tribe, to the extent that it has not been limited by Federal law, to adopt and operate under a form of government to the Indians' choosing, to define conditions of tribal membership, to regulate domestic relations of members, to prescribe rules of inheritance, to levy taxes, to regulate property within the jurisdiction of the tribe, to control the conduct of members by municipal legislation, and to administer justice. Originally, those powers which were exercised by an Indian tribe were not, in general, delegated powers granted by express actions of Congress, but rather inherent powers of a limited dependent sovereignty which had not been extinguished by Federal action. Each Indian tribe began its relationship with the Federal Government as a sovereign or quasi-sovereign government, recognized as such by treaty and in legislation. These powers of sovereignty have been limited from time to time by special treaty provisions and laws designed to take from the Indian tribes control of matters which, in the judgment of Congress, should be expressed elsewhere.

"One of the purposes of the Indian Reorganization Act of June 13, 1934 (48 Stat. 984), was to stabilize the tribal organization of Indian tribes by vesting such tribal organization with real, though limited, authority, and by prescribing conditions which must be met by such tribal organizations. The I.R.A. would also, among other things, permit Indian tribes to equip themselves with the devices of modern business organization through forming themselves into business corporations. While a majority of the Indian tribes have organized under the provisions of the I.R.A., many have organized outside of this act."

Not all Indian tribes likewise operate under a Federal Charter; thus, for the tribes in the present volume, or in subsequent volumes, for which no charter is included, it can be assumed then that in most cases none exists.

At the conclusion of the total project, the editor intends to compile an improved, suggested Constitution and By-Laws, for possible future reference by the Indian tribes themselves, based upon selected Articles from all of the present existing tribal documents.

[Public—No. 383—73d Congress]

AN ACT

To conserve and develop Indian lands and resources; to extend to Indians the right to form business and other organizations; to establish a credit system for Indians; to grant certain rights of home rule to Indians; to provide for vocational education for Indians; and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That hereafter no land of any Indian reservation, created or set apart by treaty or agreement with the Indians, Act of Congress, Executive order, purchase, or otherwise, shall be allotted in severalty to any Indian.

SEC. 2. The existing periods of trust placed upon any Indian lands and any restriction on alienation thereof are hereby extended and continued until otherwise directed by Congress.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Interior, if he shall find it to be in the public interest, is hereby authorized to restore to tribal ownership the remaining surplus lands of any Indian reservation heretofore opened, or authorized to be opened, to sale, or any other form of disposal by Presidential proclamation, or by any of the public-land laws of the United States: Provided, however, That valid rights or claims of any persons to any lands so withdrawn existing on the date of the withdrawal shall not be affected by this Act: Provided further, That this section shall not apply to lands within any reclamation project heretofore authorized in any Indian reservation: Provided further, That the order of the Department of the Interior signed, dated, and approved by Honorable Ray Lyman Wilbur, as Secretary of the Interior, on October 28, 1932, temporarily withdrawing lands of the Papago Indian Reservation in Arizona from all forms of mineral entry or claim under the public land mining laws, is hereby revoked and rescinded, and the lands of the said Papago Indian Reservation are hereby restored to exploration and location, under the existing mining laws of the United States, in accordance with the express terms and provisions declared and set forth in the Executive orders establishing said Papago Indian Reservation: Provided further, That damages shall be paid to the Papago Tribe for loss of any improvements on any land located for mining in such a sum as may be determined by the Secretary of the Interior but not to exceed the cost of said improvements: Provided further, That a yearly rental not to exceed five cents per acre shall be paid to the Papago Tribe for loss of the use or occupancy of any land withdrawn by the requirements of mining operations, and payments derived from damages or rentals shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the Papago Tribe: Provided further, That in the event any person or persons, partnership, corporation, or association, desires a mineral patent, according to the mining laws of the United States, he or they shall first deposit in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the Papago Tribe the sum of $1.00 per acre in lieu of annual rental, as hereinbefore provided, to compensate for the loss or occupancy of the lands withdrawn by the requirements of mining operations: Provided further, That patentee shall also pay into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the Papago Tribe damages for the loss of improvements not heretofore paid in such a sum as may be determined by the Secretary of the Interior, but not to exceed the cost thereof; the payment of $1.00 per acre for surface use to be refunded to patentee in the event that patent is not acquired.

Nothing herein contained shall restrict the granting or use of permits for easements or rights-of-way; or ingress or egress over the lands for all proper and lawful purposes; and nothing contained herein, except as expressly provided, shall be construed as authority for the Secretary of the Interior, or any other person, to issue or promulgate a rule or regulation in conflict with the Executive order of February 1, 1917, creating the Papago Indian Reservation in Arizona or the Act of February 21, 1931 (46 Stat. 1202).

SEC. 4. Except as herein provided, no sale, devise, gift, exchange or other transfer of restricted Indian lands or of shares in the assets of any Indian tribe of corporation organized hereunder, shall be made or approved: Provided, however, That such lands or interests may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, be sold, devised, or otherwise transferred to the Indian tribe in which the lands or shares are located or from which the shares were derived or to a successor corporation; and in all instances such lands or interests shall descend or be devised, in accordance with the then existing laws of the State, or Federal laws where applicable; in which said lands are located or in which the subject matter of the corporation is located, to any member of such tribe or of such corporation or any heirs of such member: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Interior may authorize voluntary exchanges of lands of equal value and the voluntary exchange of shares of equal value whenever such exchange, in his judgment, is expedient and beneficial for or compatible with the proper consolidation of Indian lands and for the benefit of cooperative organizations.

SEC. 5. The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to acquire through purchase, relinquishment, gift, exchange, or assignment, any interest in lands, water rights or surface rights to lands, within or without existing reservations, including trust or otherwise restricted allotments whether the allottee be living or deceased, for the purpose of providing land for Indians.

For the acquisition of such lands, interests in lands, water rights, and surface rights, and for expenses incident to such acquisition, there is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, a sum not to exceed $2,000,000 in any one fiscal year: Provided, That no part of such funds shall be used to acquire additional land outside of the exterior boundaries of Navajo Indian Reservation for the Navajo Indians in Arizona and New Mexico, in the event that the proposed Navajo boundary extension measures now pending in Congress and embodied in the bills (S.2499 and H.R.8927) to define the exterior boundaries of the Navajo Indian Reservation in Arizona, and for other purposes, and the bills (S.2531 and H.R.8982) to define the exterior boundaries of the Navajo Indian Reservation in New Mexico and for other purposes, or similar legislation, become law.

The unexpended balances of any appropriations made pursuant to this section shall remain available until expended.

Title to any lands or rights acquired pursuant to this Act shall be taken in the name of the United States in trust for the Indian tribe or individual Indian for which the land is acquired, and such lands or rights shall be exempt from State and local taxation.

SEC. 6. The Secretary of the Interior is directed to make rules and regulations for the operation and management of Indian forestry units on the principle of sustained-yield management, to restrict the number of livestock grazed on Indian range units to the estimated carrying capacity of such ranges, and to promulgate such other rules and regulations as may be necessary to protect the range from deterioration, to prevent soil erosion, to assure full utilization of the range, and like purposes.

SEC. 7. The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to proclaim new Indian reservations on lands acquired pursuant to any authority conferred by this Act, or to add such lands to existing reservations: Provided, That lands added to existing reservations shall be designated for the exclusive use of Indians entitled by enrollment or by tribal membership to residence at such reservations.

SEC. 8. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to relate to Indian holdings of allotments or homesteads upon the public domain outside of the geographic boundaries of any Indian reservation now existing or established hereafter.

SEC. 9. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated such sums as may be necessary, but not to exceed $250,000 in any fiscal year, to be expended at the order of the Secretary of the Interior, in defraying the expenses of organizing Indian chartered corporations or other organizations created under this Act.

SEC. 10. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $10,000,000 to be established as a revolving fund from which the Secretary of the Interior, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, may make loans to Indian chartered corporations for the purpose of promoting the economic development of such tribes and of their members, and may defray the expenses of administering such loans. Repayment of amounts loaned under this authorization shall be credited to the revolving fund and shall be available for the purposes for which the fund is established. A report shall be made annually to Congress of transactions under this authorization.

SEC. 11. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any funds in the United States Treasury not otherwise appropriated, a sum not to exceed $250,000 annually, together with any unexpended balances of previous appropriations made pursuant to this section, for loans to Indians for the payment of tuition and other expenses in recognized vocational and trade schools: Provided, That not more than $50,000 of such sum shall be available for loans to Indian students in high schools and colleges. Such loans shall be reimbursable under rules established by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

SEC. 12. The Secretary of the Interior is directed to establish standards of health, age, character, experience, knowledge, and ability for Indians who may be appointed, without regard to civil-service laws, to the various positions maintained, now or hereafter, by the Indian Office, in the administration of functions or services affecting any Indian tribe. Such qualified Indians shall hereafter have the preference to appointment to vacancies in any such positions.

SEC. 13. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any of the Territories, colonies, or insular possessions of the United States, except that sections 9, 10, 11, 12, and 16, shall apply to the Territory of Alaska; Provided, That Sections 2, 4, 7, 16, 17, and 18 of this Act shall not apply to the following-named Indian tribes, the members of such Indian tribes, together with members of other tribes affiliated with such named tribes located in the State of Oklahoma, as follows: Cheyenne, Arapaho, Apache, Comanche, Kiowa, Caddo, Delaware, Wichita, Osage, Kaw, Otoe, Tonkawa, Pawnee, Ponca, Shawnee, Ottawa, Quapaw, Seneca, Wyandotte, Iowa, Sac and Fox, Kickapoo, Potawatomi, Cherokee, Chickasaw, Choctaw, Creek, and Seminole. Section 4 of this Act shall not apply to the Indians of the Klamath Reservation in Oregon.

SEC. 14. The Secretary of the Interior is hereby directed to continue the allowance of the articles enumerated in section 17 of the Act of March 2, 1889 (23 Stat.L. 894), or their commuted cash value under the Act of June 10, 1896 (29 Stat.L. 334), to all Sioux Indians who would be eligible, but for the provisions of this Act, to receive allotments of lands in severalty under section 19 of the Act of May 29, 1908 (25 Stat.L. 451), or under any prior Act, and who have the prescribed status of the head of a family or single person over the age of eighteen years, and his approval shall be final and conclusive, claims therefor to be paid as formerly from the permanent appropriation made by said section 17 and carried on the books of the Treasury for this purpose. No person shall receive in his own right more than one allowance of the benefits, and application must be made and approved during the lifetime of the allottee or the right shall lapse. Such benefits shall continue to be paid upon such reservation until such time as the lands available therein for allotment at the time of the passage of this Act would have been exhausted by the award to each person receiving such benefits of an allotment of eighty acres of such land.

SEC. 15. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to impair or prejudice any claim or suit of any Indian tribe against the United States. It is hereby declared to be the intent of Congress that no expenditures for the benefit of Indians made out of appropriations authorized by this Act shall be considered as offsets in any suit brought to recover upon any claim of such Indians against the United States.

SEC. 16. Any Indian tribe, or tribes, residing on the same reservation, shall have the right to organize for its common welfare, and may adopt an appropriate constitution and by-laws, which shall become effective when ratified by a majority vote of the adult members of the tribe, or of the adult Indians residing on such reservation; as the case may be, at a special election authorized and called by the Secretary of the Interior under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe. Such constitution and bylaws when ratified as aforesaid and approved by the Secretary of the Interior shall be revocable by an election open to the same voters and conducted in the same manner as hereinabove provided. Amendments to the constitution and bylaws may be ratified and approved by the Secretary in the same manner as the original constitution and bylaws.

In addition to all powers vested in any Indian tribe or tribal council by existing law, the constitution adopted by said tribe shall also vest in such tribe or its tribal council the following rights and powers: To employ legal counsel, the choice of counsel and fixing of fees to be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior; to prevent the sale, disposition, lease, or encumbrance of tribal lands, interests in lands, or other tribal assets without the consent of the tribe; and to negotiate with the Federal, State, and local Governments. The Secretary of the Interior shall advise such tribe or its tribal council of all appropriation estimates or Federal projects for the benefit of the tribe prior to the submission of such estimates to the Bureau of the Budget and the Congress.

SEC. 17. The Secretary of the Interior may, upon petition by at least one-third of the adult Indians, issue a charter of incorporation to such tribe: Provided, That such charter shall not become operative until ratified at a special election by a majority vote of the adult Indians living on the reservation. Such charter may convey to the incorporated tribe the power to purchase, take by gift, or bequest, or otherwise, own, hold, manage, operate, and dispose of property of every description, real and personal, including the power to purchase restricted Indian land and to issue in exchange therefor interests in corporate property, and such further powers as may be incidental to the conduct of corporate business, not inconsistent with law, but no authority shall be granted to sell, mortgage, or lease for a period exceeding ten years any of the land included in the limits of the reservation. Any charter so issued shall not be revoked or surrendered except by Act of Congress.

SEC. 18. This Act shall not apply to any reservation wherein a majority of the adult Indians, voting at a special election duly called by the Secretary of the Interior, shall vote against its application. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior, within one year after the passage and approval of this Act, to call such an election, which election shall be held by secret ballot upon thirty days' notice.

SEC. 19. The term "Indian" as used in this Act shall include all persons of Indian descent who are members of any recognized Indian tribe now under Federal jurisdiction, and all persons who are descendants of such members who were, on June 1, 1934, residing within the present boundaries of any Indian reservation, and shall further include all other persons of one-half or more Indian blood. For the purposes of this Act, Eskimos and other aboriginal peoples of Alaska shall be considered Indians. The term "tribe" wherever used in this Act shall be construed to refer to any Indian tribe, organized band, pueblo, or the Indians residing on one reservation. The words "adult Indians" wherever used in this Act shall be construed to refer to Indians who have attained the age of twenty-one years.

Approved June 18, 1934.

It is recognized that under existing law such lands may be condemned for public purposes, such as roads, public buildings, or other public improvements, upon payment of adequate compensation, by any agency of the State of South Dakota or of the Federal Government, or by the tribe itself. It is further recognized that under existing law such lands may be inherited by the heirs of the present owner, whether or not they are members of the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe. Likewise it is recognized that under existing law the Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, remove restrictions upon such land, upon application by the Indian owner, whereupon the land will become subject to State taxes and may then be mortgaged or sold.

The right of the individual Indian to hold or to part with his land, as under existing law, shall not be abrogated by anything contained in this constitution, but the owner of restricted land may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, voluntarily convey his land to the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe either in exchange for a money payment or in exchange for an assignment covering the same land or other land, as hereinafter provided.

No area of grazing land shall be subdivided into units smaller than sixty (60) acres, and no area of agricultural land shall be subdivided into units smaller than two and one-half acres, except that land used for buildings or other improvements may be divided to suit the conveniences of the parties. Where it is impossible to divide the land properly among the eligible heirs or devisees, the tribal council shall issue to such heirs or devisees grazing permits or other interests in tribal lands of the same value as the assignments of the decedent.

(d) If there are no eligible heirs or devisees of the decedent, the land shall be eligible for reassignment in accordance with the provisions of section 4 of this article.

SEC. 9. Inheritance of improvements. --Improvements of any character made upon assigned land may be bequeathed to and inherited by members of the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe or otherwise disposed of under such regulations as the tribal council shall provide. Notices of all applications received by the secretary shall be posted by him in the agency office and in at least three conspicuous places in the district in which the land is located for not less than twenty (20) days before action is taken by the council. Dear Mr. Owl:

In accordance with Office letter of December 8, 1948, the Crow Creek Sioux Tribe of South Dakota held an election on March 11, 1949, on the matter of the adoption or rejection of a proposed Constitution and By-laws. The certification indicates that in this election more than a majority of those voting cast votes in favor of the Constitution and at least 30 per cent of the eligible voters of the tribe participated in the election. It is apparent, however, that the document was duly ratified by the qualified voters of the Tribe.

As required in Article IX of the By-laws, I am hereby approving the Constitution and By-laws of the Crow Creek Sioux Tribe of Fort Thompson, South Dakota, whereupon it becomes effective as the official document of the Tribe. I am returning the original to you for safe-keeping. Great care should be exercised in protecting the original document.

Notices of all applications received by the secretary shall be posted by him in the agency office and in at least three conspicuous places in the district in which the land is located for not less than 20 days before action is taken by the council. Any member of the tribe wishing to oppose the granting of an assignment shall do so in writing, setting forth his objections to be filed with the secretary of the council, and may, if he so desires, appear before the council to present evidence. The secretary of the council shall furnish the superintendent or other officer in charge of the agency a complete record of all action taken by the council on applications for assignment of land and a complete record of assignments shall be kept in the agency office and shall be open for inspection by members of the tribe.

[Former Sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 repealed by Amendment No. III effective June 19, 1962.]

SECTION 1. In any assignment of tribal lands, preference shall be given to heads of families which are entirely landless. Assignments under this section shall be known as "home assignments" and shall be granted for the purpose of giving opportunity to homeless Indians for establishing a home. Any assignment under this provision shall not exceed ten (10) acres in area.

SEC. 2. If any person holding a "home assignment" of land shall for a period of six months fail to use the land so assigned or shall use the land for any unlawful purpose, his assignment may be cancelled by the tribal council after due notice and opportunity to be heard. Such land may then be available for reassignment.

Upon the death of any Indian holding a "home assignment" his heirs or other individuals designated by him by will or written request shall have preference in the reassignment of the land, provided such persons are eligible to receive a "home assignment."

SEC. 3. (b) Such lands may not be reassigned to any heir or devisee who already holds more than 1920 acres of land on the reservation. [Amendment No. IV, effective June 19, 1962.]

(c) Such lands may not be subdivided into units too small for practical use. No area of grazing land shall be subdivided into units smaller than one hundred sixty (160) acres. No area of agricultural land shall be subdivided into smaller units than two and one-half ( $2\frac{1}{2}$ ) acres. When interests in assignments shall involve smaller areas than the amounts herein set out, the tribal council may issue to such heir or devisee a proportionate share in other grazing units or other interests in land of equal value.

(d) If there are no eligible heirs or devisees of the decedent, the land shall be eligible for reassignment the same as other tribal lands.

SEC. 6. Improvements of any character made upon assigned land may be willed to and inherited by members of the Rosebud Tribe. When improvements are made possible of fair division, the tribal council shall dispose of them under such regulations as it may provide. No permanent improvements may be removed from any tribal or assigned land without the consent of the tribal council.

SEC. 7. No member of the Rosebud Tribe may use or occupy tribal land except under assignment or lease.

SEC. 8. Unassigned land shall be managed by the tribal council for the benefit of the members of the entire tribe.

SEC. 9. Tribal funds may be used, with the consent of the Secretary of the Interior, to acquire land for the Rosebud Tribe.

The application will be placed in the hands of a proper committee who will call the matter up for action at the next regular meeting of the council. Any member of the tribe may object in writing, to a proposed assignment. In the event of objection, the chairman of the council shall set a date for a hearing, advising both the applicant and the objector. The action of the council shall be final.

The secretary of the council shall furnish the superintendent or other officer in charge of the agency a complete record of all action taken by the council on applications for assignment of land, and a complete record of assignments shall be kept in the agency office and shall be open for inspection by members of the tribe.

The council shall draw up one or more forms for standard and exchange assignments, which shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

ARTICLE IX - AMENDMENTS

This constitution and by-laws may be amended by a majority vote of the qualified voters of the Rosebud Sioux Tribe voting at an election called for that purpose by the Secretary of the Interior, provided that at least thirty (30) per cent of those entitled to vote shall vote in such election; but no amendment shall become effective until it shall have been approved by the Secretary of the Interior. RESOLUTION NO. 6323 AMENDING ARTICLE III,
SECTION 2 OF THE CONSTITUTION

BE IT RESOLVED, that pursuant to the powers vested in the Tribal Council under Article III, Section 3 of the Constitution of the Rosebud Sioux Tribe, Article III, Section 2 of the Constitution be, and the same is, hereby amended by eliminating the White Thunder, Little Crow, Ponca and Upper Ponca communities from the list of communities set forth in Article III, Section 2, by adding to the list Antelope, Milk's Camp and Rosebud as new communities and by setting forth the list of communities, as amended, in alphabetical order as follows:

|-------------------|-------------------|
| 1. Antelope       | 12. Okreek        |
| 2. Bad Nation     | 13. Parmelee      |
| 3. Black Pipe     | 14. Ring Thunder  |
| 4. Bull Creek     | 15. Rosebud       |
| 5. Butte Creek    | 16. St. Francis   |
| 6. Corn Creek     | 17. Soldier Creek |
| 7. Grass Mountain | 18. Spring Creek  |
| 8. He Dog         | 19. Swift Bear    |

- 9. Horse Creek
- 10. Ideal
- 11. Milk's Camp

- 20. Two Strike
- 21. Upper Cut Meat

In support of the foregoing amendment, the Tribal Council finds and determines as follows:

1. The communities now listed in Article III, Section 2 of the Constitution reflected the situation in 1935, when the Constitution was adopted. Since that time there have been shifts in population and population centers, stemming from changes in the economy and related factors, resulting in changes in communities. To permit fair representation on the Tribal Council and to endeavor to bring into balance the value of the individual votes, reapportionment is essential.

ELIMINATED COMMUNITIES

2. White Thunder. This community has been inactive for many years and has not had a representative on the Tribal Council for at least ten years. The people who formerly lived in White Thunder now exercise their vote in surrounding communities, and have no status as a distinct community. The proposed amendment recognizes this fact.

3. Little Crow. The population of this community declined to about three families and those families vote in the Okreek District. This district has not had a representative on the Tribal Council for over ten years.

4. Ponca and Upper Ponca. Under the proposed amendment these two communities have been combined and renamed "Milk's Camp." The reason for this action is because of the reduced population.

NEW COMMUNITIES

5. Antelope. Since the Constitution was adopted, a substantial number of people have moved into the area surrounding the town of Mission and there is a need for representation of these people on the Tribal Council. This area is embraced within the new Antelope community. It has an Indian population of about 400 people.

6. Milk's Camp. This community, as explained above, represents the consolidated Ponca and Upper Ponca communities. It is the wish of the people in the consolidated community that the name "Milk's Camp" be adopted to honor Chief Milk, who formerly lived there. The name, Ponca, has no special significance to the people and it is objectionable because of confusion with another Tribe.

7. Rosebud. This is the Agency community. Since the Constitution was adopted in 1935, it has substantially grown in population. As a result, there are about 300 members of the Tribe in the Rosebud Community who have no representation on the Tribal Council as a community. Under the new re-alignment they would have independent representation.

It is respectfully urged that the Secretary of the Interior approve this resolution in accordance with Article II, Section 3, of the Constitution.

CERTIFICATION

The undersigned President and Secretary of the Rosebud Sioux Tribal Council do hereby certify that the forthgoing resolution above is a true and correct copy of the resolution and was duly passed by a vote of 20 for, none opposed, 1 member excused, and Chairman not voting, at a legally convened special meeting of the Rosebud Sioux Tribal Council held March 27, 1963. The resolution is subject to approval by the Secretary of Interior in accordance with Section 3, Manner of Review, of Article IV of the Constitution and By-laws of the Rosebud Sioux Tribe.

Shifting of Indian populations within reservation communities is a matter which demands close and continual study by tribal governing bodies in order to provide proper representation, and the Rosebud Sioux Tribal Council is commended for the action it has taken to maintain equitable representation.

Resolution No. 6323, however, does not designate where the residents of two of the eliminated communities, White Thunder and Little Crow, shall cast their ballots in tribal elections. To avoid any questions in the future, Resolution No. 6323 redesignating the communities on the Rosebud Reservation is approved subject to Tribal Council enactment of a resolution designating the communities the residents of White Thunder and Little Crow communities shall vote. The approval of the redesignation of the reservation communities shall be effective on the date of enactment of the resolution requested in this conditional approval. The original and two copies of the resolution should be furnished this Office.

One copy of Resolution No. 6323 is returned.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Schunk:

There has been presented to this Department for consideration the proposed revision of the constitution for the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe, North and South Dakota, with the request that we authorize the holding of a referendum for its ratification or rejection. Our examination of the proposed revision indicates that the Standing Rock Sioux Tribal Business Council and the tribal attorney have devoted considerable effort and study of this document and we commend them for the excellent work they have done.

It is our understanding that although the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe voted to accept the provisions of the Indian Reorganization Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984), the tribal members do not wish to organize or adopt a tribal constitution pursuant to that Act, but instead prefer to revise their present constitution which was adopted prior to the Act of June 18, 1934, and which has continued in effect since 1914, with appropriate amendments having been made thereto since that time. Since this is the expressed desire of the Standing Rock Sioux people, we have no objection to the approval of the revision of the existing constitution with the understanding that the revised document does not fall within the purview of Section 16 of the Indian Reorganization Act which pertains to constitutional organizations and elections.

We are informed that the Standing Rock Sioux Tribal Business Council is now actively engaged in the implementation of Public Law 85-915, the Act of September 2, 1958 (72 Stat. 1762) relating to the Oahe Dam and Reservoir Project. The drafts which we have seen of the plan of operation for the Oahe Relocation and Re-establishment Program reflect the sincere desire of the Tribal Business Council to assume progressively more and more responsibility for the administration and management of the affairs of the Tribe. We believe that this is a commendable step. The tribal constitution as now revised will help materially in the orderly advancement of the tribal government towards this objective and will enable us as the Tribe demonstrates its capability to assist the Tribal Business Council towards this end.

There are a few important additions which we believe should be made in the proposed revision of the tribal constitution. These additions were discussed with the Tribal Attorney who agreed that they are desirable and appropriate. The first concerned Article II, Membership, which added at the end of this Article the phrase:

"...pursuant to Article IV, Section 1(r) of this Constitution; provided that any person who is rejected for enrollment as a member of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe shall have the right to appeal to the Secretary of the Interior from the decision of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribal Council, and the decision of the Secretary of the Interior shall be final, and provided further that prior to the distribution of any tribal assets to the members of the Tribe, the membership roll shall be approved by the Secretary of the Interior."

We believe that it is most important that in Article III, Section 8 of the tribal constitution specific provision be made to safeguard the right of an accused councilman to be heard in his own defense. The following has therefore been added to this section reading: ", provided such member is first given twenty (20) days' notice in writing by the Secretary of the Tribal Council, and a chance to be heard. The Tribal Council shall by duly enacted ordinances establish such procedures and regulations necessary to carry out the intent of this section. All questions of removal shall be resolved by the Tribal Council."

Another addition related to Article IV, Section 1(p) of the tribal constitution in which the phrase "doing business within the reservation." was included at the end of this provision. There may be persons residing within the reservation who are not members of the Tribe but who may not be engaged in business. Such persons, of course, should not be taxed, or fees levied against them.

Certain time schedules are contemplated in Article V, Tribal Elections, to be observed in the conduct of tribal elections for tribal officials. Presumably, the Tribal Business Council will adopt rules and regulations setting out the time for making nominations, etc. We have added, therefore, the phrase "and in accordance with rules and regulations to be prescribed by ordinance adopted by the Tribal Council," at the end of Section 2 of this Article.

The Tribal Attorney also offered an improvement of Article V, Section 3, which we have accepted as an addition reading as follows:

"...If more than two (2) candidates seek the office of councilman, the one receiving a majority of the total votes cast shall be elected. If no candidate receives a majority of the total votes cast, the two (2) candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be the candidates in a runoff election to be held not more than thirty (30) days after the general election."

You and the Standing Rock Sioux Tribal Council are hereby authorized to conduct an election to permit the adult members of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe to vote on the ratification or rejection of the enclosed revised tribal constitution. The election is to be held in accordance with the usual practices observed on the Standing Rock Reservation for the conduct of general tribal elections. Care should be taken that all adult members of the Tribe entitled to participate in this election are afforded an opportunity to exercise their right to vote in this election. Should you and the Tribal Council wish any assistance in the formulation of procedures to govern this election, please feel free to call upon the staff of the Aberdeen Area Office or that of the Central Office of the Indian Bureau.

As pointed out above, this revised constitution is drafted outside of the provisions of the Indian Reorganization Act, supra; therefore, no minimum percentage of the total number of eligible voters are required to participate in this election in order to effect ratification of this revised constitution. You are requested to stress to the tribal membership that the ratification of this revision of the existing tribal constitution will not change the fact that the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe is organized outside of the provisions of the Indian Reorganization Act.

The document, if ratified by a majority of the qualified voters of the Tribe, will become effective when approved by the Secretary of the Interior, the condition of his approval being that he must satisfy himself that the total vote cast represents a reasonable portion of the qualified voters of the Tribe.

As soon as the election has been held and the results determined, the certification form appearing at the end of the revised tribal constitution should be executed by you and the Tribal Council, and the original of the entire revised document returned to the Bureau of Indian Affairs for transmittal to this Department for final approval.

Dear Sir:

On December 31, 1958 the Assistant Secretary authorized the Superintendent and the Standing Rock Sioux Tribal Council to conduct an election to permit the adult members of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe to vote on the ratification or rejection of a revised constitution which was enclosed with the Assistant Secretary's letter.

By resolution the Tribal Council set the date of February 11, 1959 for the election and although we offered our services in connection with the election, the Tribal Council did not accept our offer and proceeded to carry out the campaign for adoption of the revised tribal constitution and the election on their own initiative.

After the election was held we received a mimeographed copy of the certification of the election committee which certified that the adult members of the Tribe had voted to accept the revised constitution by a vote of 409 in favor and 182 against. Upon receipt of this mimeographed notice the Superintendent was requested by our memorandum of February 25 to return the original of the entire revised document, properly certified as required by the last paragraph of the Assistant Secretary's letter of December 31.

There are enclosed copies of the revised constitution of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe certifying the ratification by the Tribal membership at an election on February 11, 1959, by a vote of 409 for and 182 against. Neither the Agency nor the Tribe can locate the original letter of the Assistant Secretary addressed to Mr. Schunk, nor the original revised document attached to that letter. It is assumed that the letter and document were lost by the past Chairman during one of his extended absences from office. However, this is only an assumption. It is, therefore, recommended that one of the attached, signed copies be accepted as the original document and it is recommended that it be approved.

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I am in receipt of the amended constitution of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe as approved June 25, 1914, and as amended August 16, 1954, The Certificate of Adoption indicates that the amended constitution was submitted for ratification to the adult members of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe on February 11, 1959, and was ratified by a vote of 409 for and 182 against, which represents approximately thirty percent of the qualified voters.

In accordance with "Article IX, Adoption of Amended Constitution" I am satisfied that the vote cast represents a reasonable proportion of the qualified voters of the tribe. I am today affixing my signature and I am approving the document entitled "Amendment to Constitution of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe as approved June 25, 1914, and as amended August 16, 1954."

"Apparently, the original document transmitted with our letter of December 31, 1958, has been lost or misplaced, I am, therefore, affixing my approval to page 7 of the mimeographed reproduction of the original document above mentioned. I noticed in reviewing the enclosure that a typographical error appears in Article VIII, Amendments. The second word in the third line was transposed from "that" to "the". This does not cloud the intent of the Article, but I mention it in passing for your information.

I want to personally express to the tribal council, the tribal attorney and others who participated in the development of this document, the presentation of it to the electors and in the conduct of the election, that a remarkable job has been well done. This document, without doubt, will materially add to the effectiveness of the tribe's governmental functions and provide a well defined basis for the development of the internal strength of the tribe.

One manually signed copy of the amended constitution bearing my approval and signature is enclosed for the records of the tribe. A manually signed copy stamped with my approval and signature is being transmitted, together with a copy of this letter, to the Superintendent of the Standing Rock Agency and the Area Director at Aberdeen, South Dakota.

October 5, 1961

Through: Area Director, Aberdeen

Dear Mr. Nasset:

There has been presented to this Department for consideration Resolution No. 132-61, which was passed by the Standing Rock Sioux Tribal Council on March 13, 1961. The resolution proposes an amendment to the constitution by adding a new Article XI - Bill of Rights.

The Standing Rock Sioux tribal constitution provides that the Secretary of the Interior shall call an election upon a proposed amendment to the constitution at the request of three-fourths (3/4) of the members of the tribal council.

We have reviewed the language of the proposed amendment and we find no objections thereto. However, the Bill of Rights as proposed does not appear to include all rights which should be accorded to the members of the tribe. Since the time remaining for the consideration of revisions to the Bill of Rights would not be sufficient to allow for a review by the tribal council as required by the constitution on proposed amendments, it is considered desirable for the amendment proposal to be submitted to the electorate in the forthcoming election of October 21. Accordingly, you and the Standing Rock Sioux Tribal Council are hereby authorized to conduct an election to permit the adult members of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe to vote on the ratification or rejection of the enclosed amendment to the tribal constitution. The election is to be held in accordance with the usual practices observed on the Standing Rock Reservation for the conduct of general tribal elections. Care should be taken that all adult members of the tribe entitled to participate in this election are afforded an opportunity to exercise their right to vote.

Since the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe is organized outside the provisions of the Indian Reorganization Act, no minimum percentage of the total number of eligible voters are required to participate in this election in order to effect ratification of this proposed amendment.

The amendment, if ratified by a majority of those qualified voters of the tribe voting in the election, will become effective when approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

As soon as the election has been held and the results determined, the enclosed certification form should be executed by you and the proper tribal officials, and the original of the amendment and certification form returned to the Bureau of Indian Affairs for transmittal to this Department for approval.

It is suggested that the tribal council give consideration to amending the proposed Bill of Rights if accepted by the members on October 21 in order that the maximum protection may be afforded to the members in the Bill of Rights. To accomplish this, we submit the following proposals for consideration:

- (1) Article IX, Section 2, insert after the words "offense charged", the words "shall be permitted to have the assistance of counsel for his defense and to summon witnesses in his own behalf."

- (2) Add a Section 3, suggested wordage as follows: "No person shall be subject to be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense nor be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without the process of law, nor be denied equal protection of law."

Dear Mr. Nessel:

Through: Area Director, Aberdeen

Dear Mr. Nessel:

There has been presented to this Department for consideration Resolution No. 9-64, which was passed by the Standing Rock Sioux Tribal Council on July 31, 1963. The resolution, approved by eleven of the fifteen member council, proposes to amend Article V, Section 3 of the tribal constitution.

The Standing Rock Sioux Constitution provides that the Secretary of the Interior call an election upon a proposed amendment to the constitution at the request of three-fourths (3/4) of the members of the tribal council.

Article V, Section 3 of the constitution now provides for a run-off election of candidates for councilmen; the proposed amendment would eliminate the necessity of a run-off election by having the matter settled at a primary election which would be held before the general election. We have reviewed the proposed amendment and find no basis for objections.

We note the resolution requests that the proposed amendment be submitted to the electorate in the forthcoming election of tribal officers scheduled for October 24. You and the Standing Rock Sioux Tribal Council are hereby authorized to conduct an election to permit the adult members of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe to accept or reject the enclosed proposed Amendment II to the tribal constitution in conjunction with the October 24 election of tribal officers. The election is to be held in accordance with the usual practices observed on the Standing Rock Reservation for conducting general tribal elections. Care should be taken that all adult members of the tribe entitled to participate in the election are afforded an opportunity to exercise their right to vote.

Since the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe is organized outside the provisions of the Indian Reorganization Act, no minimum percentage of the total number of eligible voters is required to participate in this election. The requirements of Article VIII must be met in order to effect ratification of this proposed amendment. Article VIII provides that an amendment will become effective when ratified by a majority of those qualified voters of the tribe voting in a duly called election and approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

As soon as the election has been held and the results ascertained, the enclosed certification form should be executed by you and the proper tribal officials, and the original of the amendment and certification form returned to the Bureau of Indian Affairs for transmittal to the Secretary for approval.

Sincerely yours,

BUSINESS AND CLAIMS COMMITTEE, SOUTH DAKOTA

Every effort shall be made by the renter in order to obtain as many signatures as possible. Will not be violated.

Any business in the matter of Tribal claims shall be brought directly to a General Tribal Council for the Tribe's consideration, except in case of an emergency involving any attorney contract, then the contract shall be executed in accordance with the format used in the renewal dated February 1, 1957. This format was used again by the Constitutional Committee in an emergency involving attorney contract which expired in January 17, 1961, and in view of circumstances as stated in the letter of January 17, 1962, from the law office of Wilkinson, Cragun, and Barker, the Committee temporarily extended the original attorney contract so that the Yankton Claims will not be lost by default.

SEC. 6. The format mentioned above is an exception to the regulations cited as 25 CFR Section 72. The superintendent, or someone representing him, shall be in attendance with a stenographer.

SEC. 7. The rights of the individual Indians to hold their money shall not be affected by anything contained in this Constitution and By-Laws. UNITED STATES
DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS
Washington 25, D.C.

24 April 1963

Through: Area Director, Aberdeen

Mr. Harold W. Schunk
Superintendent, Rosebud Agency

Dear Mr. Schunk:

On July 24 the Aberdeen Area Director forwarded to this Office Resolution No. 3, adopted July 10 by the Constitutional Committee of the Yankton Sioux Tribe, requesting that amendments to the Tribe's 1932 Constitution and By-laws be approved. The amendments submitted with Resolution No. 3 were adopted by the Tribe in General Council held on July 2, 1963, in accordance with Article 16 of the 1932 Constitution and By-laws.

The amendments submitted have been carefully examined. It is quite clear that a very considerable amount of painstaking effort was taken by the Constitutional Committee in the development of the modifications. A number of the provisions need some clarification for the purpose of providing a clear understanding as to their intent. Our comments with respect to such provisions are as follows:

Article III - Purpose and Object

Section 1. While we do not object to the provisions of this section, it should be understood that 25 USC 81 provides for the approval of all contracts by the Secretary of the Interior.

Article IV - Membership

Section 1. For the purpose of lending clarity to the provisions of this section it is understood that the requirement that a person must possess  $\frac{1}{4}$  degree Yankton Sioux Indian blood to be eligible for membership shall not be retroactive, but that such requirement shall become effective upon the date of approval of this amended constitution by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Section 3. We see no objection to the provisions of this section, but from the standpoint of clarity, it is understood that the term "active membership" is intended to mean the membership which comprises the eligible voters of the tribe.

Article V - Officers

Section 1. We are certain that the tribe intends to have separate secretary and treasurer positions within the Committee. Therefore, as a matter of clarification it is understood that the reference to "Secretary and Treasurer" as used in the last line of this section is not to be construed that the secretary and treasurer is one office.

Section 2. We fully recognize that circumstances may, on occasion, warrant the removal of an officer or committee member of a tribe's designated tribal committee, and that the procedures for removal need to be clearly established in order to avoid excessive disruption of the tribal organization arising from charges for removal which may be made without specific grounds. For this reason it should be understood that the Committee of the Yankton Sioux Tribe, by resolution or ordinance, will establish an appropriate removal procedure. As a matter of information, the removal procedure could include such factors as malfeasance in the handling of tribal affairs, neglect of duty, unexcused failure to attend three regular meetings in succession, conviction of a felony in any county, state or Federal court while serving on the Committee, and refusal to comply with any provisions of the Constitution and By-laws of the Tribe.

Section 3. The provision in this section is not clear as to its applicability. However, for the purpose of clarity, it is understood that the intent of this section is to allow the tribal membership a means of control over its officers and committee members through such actions as reprimand, censure, suspension and removal, and that there is no intent on the part of the tribe to establish any type of judicial proceedings either criminal or civil. Our comments on Section 2 of Article V with respect to the establishment of written removal procedures applies to this section.

Section 4. With respect to the language "approval by the Secretary of the Interior" as it appears in this section and in other parts of this constitution, your attention is directed to the administrative procedures established by law which permits the Secretary of the Interior to delegate authority to subordinate officers. Therefore, for the purpose of clarity it should be understood that when any reference in this constitution is made to the "Secretary of the Interior" it shall mean the "Secretary" or his authorized representative.

Article VI - Territory

Section 2. The language in this section could have been stated in a more explicit manner. It is not known whether the assignments made prior to this amended constitution were made only with the approval of the Bureau. Assignments of tribal land are the responsibility of the tribe, but such assignments may be made subject to approval of the Secretary or his authorized representative. Therefore, it is understood that as a matter of principle, the provision of this section is interpreted by the Bureau to include the proprietary rights of the tribe in making assignments.

Section 3. The language of this section implies that the provisions therein take precedence over the laws of the United States. To avoid any false impression it is understood that the provisions of this section are subject to any valid law to the contrary. We do not believe the tribe intended that the word "encumbered" be used in such a broad sense as to preclude the tribe granting assignments, permits, leases, and rights of way. This interpretation is made in order to provide clarity to the intent of the language contained in this section.

Article VII - Claims Against the United States

Section 1. The first clause is unnecessary since the constitution as amended could not be construed to prejudice any claims which can lawfully be made against the United States. The first part of the second clause would impose on invalid condition, since Federal law does permit offsets to be made. The last portion of this Article, which provides that future payments of recovered claims shall be made per capita, is subject to legislative control. This Article obviously could not be approved, and accordingly is to be omitted from this constitution.

Article X - Hunting

Section 1. We interpret the provisions of this section as simply a statement of tribal policy that the tribe will not prohibit or otherwise attempt to keep Indians, whether tribal members or not, from carrying on hunting activities on tribal lands. And that it is not intended as an affirmative grant of right. It should be further understood that any such activity by Indians will be subject to applicable laws on the subject.

Section 2. From the standpoint of clarification and understanding we regard the provisions of this section as simply a statement of tribal policy that hunting and fishing activities by anyone, whether Indian or non-Indian, on allotted or individually owned land, will be a matter for determination by the individual owners and it is not intended as a grant of an affirmative right. As indicated above, such activities shall be subject to applicable laws.

Article XI - Amendments

Section 1. The provisions of this section could have been more explicit. However, exception is not being taken. On the other hand, it should be understood that the tribe will enact an ordinance governing the conduct of elections on amendments. Such an ordinance shall provide all information pertinent to an election including voting on amendments by absentee ballots.

Section 2. With the understanding that the tribe will enact an election ordinance, as set forth in the comments to Section 1, Section 2 of Article XI therefore shall be deleted.

Section 3. Both the Task Force on Indian Affairs and the Senate Sub-Committee on Constitutional Rights of the American Indian have stressed the importance of assuring that Indian citizens have the same constitutional rights as other citizens. Section 3, as constructed, imposes a limitation on the eligible voters of the tribe in voting on any proposed amendments to the constitution and by-laws of the tribe's organizational document. In view of this limitation, this section obviously could not be approved, and is to be omitted.

Section 4. With the deletion of sections 2 and 3 of this Article, section 4 as submitted is renumbered as section 2.

AMENDED BY-LAWS OF THE YANKTON SIOUX TRIBAL BUSINESS AND CLAIMS
COMMITTEE

Article IV - Management

Section 2. The word "contractual" was used in this section is [was] misspelled; however, it is understood that the reference to that word [contractial] is intended to be "contractual".

Section 3. While no objection is taken to the provisions of this section, it should be understood that lands belonging to any member of the Yankton Sioux Tribe, whether allotted or heirship lands, and whether in trust or non-trust status, are governed by the laws of the United States.

Section 4. Exception is not taken to the provisions of Section 4 of Article IV of the By-laws, but it should be understood that the statute, 25 USC 380, as implemented by 25 CFR 131, will govern the execution of leases on inherited lands.

Section 5. While we do not object to the provisions of this section, we feel it should be understood by the Tribe that when authority is not delegated to its representative body (tribal council, committee, etc.) to employ legal counsel, such authority rests with the Tribe. Approval of a contract for legal services, therefore, must be by resolution by the tribe in general council. Such resolution should designate the tribal officials authorized to execute the contract on behalf of the tribe.

Section 6. No objection is made to the provisions of this section, but it should be understood that our comments in connection with Section 1 of Article III of the Constitution concerning the approval of contracts likewise apply to this section.

Section 7. In regard to the provisions of this section, it must be understood that where income is derived from trust sources and such monies are processed through the Individual Indian Money Accounts, the Individual Indian Money regulations shall govern.

Section 8. Monies appropriated to satisfy judgments obtained by Indian tribes before the Indian Claims Commission or the Court of Claims can be used or expended as provided by acts of Congress, and as may be required therein subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. Inasmuch as this section seeks to substitute the desires of the Tribe for the actions of the Congress, Section 8 of Article IV of the By-laws is disapproved and should be deleted from the tribal document.

Article V - Duties of Officers

While the duties of the Committee Chairman could have been more explicit, no objection is made to the provisions of this section. We interpret the reference to "executive chairman" to mean the Chairman of the Yankton Sioux Tribal Business and Claims Committee.

Article IX - Undue Influence on Contracts

Section 1. This section as constructed does not provide how the "undue influence" will be determined and who shall make the determination. To avoid internal tribal complications arising from this provision, Section 1 of Article IX of the By-laws is disapproved and is to be deleted from the tribal document.

Article XIII - Amendments

Section 1. The provisions for amending the By-laws of the tribal document could have been more explicit. However, no objection is taken to the provisions. It is, however, understood that amendments to the By-laws shall be accomplished in accordance with the provisions of Article XI of the Constitution.

A copy of the amended constitution and by-laws is returned. In order to avoid any misunderstanding over the intent of the provisions of the tribe's constitution and by-laws, a copy of this letter should be made a part of each copy of the tribe's document.

In considering the amended constitution, it has been necessary to clarify many aspects of the modifications in order to avoid misunderstandings. The tribe, for this or any other reason, may deem it desirable to propose subsequent amendments. We want the tribe to know that the Bureau is always happy to assist in the formulation of amendatory language in keeping with tribal needs.

We are aware of the circumstances under which the tribal officials undertook this difficult task, and we tender our appreciation and commendation for their efforts in the modification of the Tribe's organizational document.

The amended constitution of the Yankton Sioux Tribe is approved as set forth herein.

Sincerely yours,

/Sgd/ J. Leonard Harwood
